

Children's Basic Grief Needs

- Need for information that is clear and understandable to them
- Need to feel involved and important
- Need for reassurance about the grief of adults around them
- Need for their own thoughts and feelings
- Need to maintain their own age-appropriate interests and activities.