

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Turtle Mountain School Division supports the concept of life long learning.

Turtle Mountain School Division will support adult and continuing education programs and courses which are self-sufficient or can be offered at minimal cost to the Division.

The Division may provide available unused or surplus space and/or equipment for use in promoting adult and continuing education opportunities for students in the Division.